VOL. CVXIIII.—60. ALEXANDRIA, VIRGINIA, WEDNESDAY, MARCH 12, 1913. PRICE, 2 CENTS

FOUR CHAIRMEN FROM VIRGINIA

State Will be a Powerul Factor in Directing Legislation in House.

STRONG QUARTETTE.

Committee Will Consider Some of The Most Important Matters to be Brought Before Congress.

Washington, arch 12.—Not within a quarter of a century, or perhaps since the days of John Goode, John Randolph Tucker, George D Wise and Charles T. O'Ferrall, has Virginia occupied such an influential position in the House of Representatives as she will in the next Congress.

The days of Goode, Tucker and O'Ferral were adys when floor-debater was almost as powerful a force as in the days of old. These men were matters in a rough and tumble forensic battle. They could hammer their ideas through the house with a force that was almost irressistible.

Today things have changed, and the committees are the influential factors in shaping legislation. The house is nothing more or less than a legislative machine. It grinds out what the committees feed it. The big legislative problems are threshed out and constructed in the committee room, and it is seldom that the committee's action is materially changed by the house.

Upon the shoulders of members of the house from Alabama and Virginia—two Southern States—will fall the work of constructing and then guiding through the house the big problems which the Wilson administration is pledged to handle. Virginia will have four important chairmanships.

Oscar W. Underwood, of Alabama, chairman of the ways and means committee, is in charge of the making of the new tariff bill. It was the tariff that wrecked the Taft administration and it was the tariff that brought on the troubles for the last Cleveland administration. The next biggest problem is the construction of a new monetary system. The handling of this titanic job will be up to Carter Glass, of Lynchburg, Va., who will be chairman of the house committee on banking and currency.

Mr. Glass will also be called upon to follow up the trail of the "money devil" whose lair was located by the Pujo sub-committee. Thusly, not only a reconstruction of the banking and currency laws but legislation affecting stock exchanges and clearing houses will be complicated questions Mr. Glass and the committee he heads will have to deal with.

William A. Jones, of the First district has the Phillipine problem on his hand. He is chairman of the insular affair committee and now has pending in Congress a Philippine independent bill. There are some rocks ahead of the legislation. If the bill to give the island their freedom fails,, it will be up to Mr. Jones and his committee to take step to revolutionize the management of the Phillipines by the American government. The Philippine question is one of the problems which the Democratic platform declares shall be handled by the Wilson administration.

Henry D. Clayton, of Alabama, is chairman of the committee on the judiciary, of which C. C. Carlin, of the Eighth Virginia, is also a member. The anti-trust legislative problems must come from this body. Mr. Carlin is the chairman of one of the important subcommittees of the judiciary.

H. D. Flood, of the Tenth Virginia heads the foreign affairs committee which has the Mexican and other Central America troubles on its hands. The Mexican situation looks like it will be a knotty one before four years rolls by.

James Hay, of the Seventh Virginia heads the military affairs, now one of the major committees of the house. While not affecting Virginia intimately, this committee will be confronted with many questions looking to changing some of the army methods.

Backing up Congressemn Flood, Hay, Jones and Glass as the heads of important legislative committees there will be Andrew Jackson Montague, of Richmond, and E. W. Saunders, of Rocky Mount, on the floor of the House. Both men are strong speakers. The few years that Judge Saunders has been in the house he has established a reputation as a strong debater and one of the best parliamentarians. Judge Saunders is a ranking member on the appropriations committee. This committee is considered, next to the ways and means, the most important in the house. Congressman Saunders is one of the "economy" leaders of congress. The Wilson administration is expecting an "economy" in the management of governmental affairs, one of its issues. Judge Saunders, therefore, is a member of the appropriations committee, will be one of the men Wilson will look to in his economy campaign.

Congressman Holland, of the Norfolk, expects to land on the naval affairs or the rivers and harbors committee and he will look after the problems that mostly concern the Tidewater section of the state

Walter A Watson, a new member from Virginia, is anxious to get on the postoffice and post roads committee. He is anxious to secure better mail facilities for his district, which is extensive in area and much in need of rural delivery service. If he cannot get a place on this committee he will probably be placed on the agriculture committee, which will deal with the subject of national aid for good roads.

In a nutshell, Virginia will be strongly entrenched not only on the floor of the house in debate, but in committee chairmanships—stronger perhaps than she has been since the war. Her strength will be distributed as follows:

Glass, chairman banking and currency.

Jones, chairman insular affairs.

Hay, chairman military affairs

Flood, chairman foreign affairs.

Montague, probably a member of merchant marine, to reconstruct the coastwise maritime laws.

Holland, either naval affairs or rivers and harbors.

Carlin, judiciary.

Watson, postoffice and post roads, or agriculture.

Saunders, appropriations.

Slemp (Republican), mines and mining.

No state in the Union will have its delegation so distributed in committee assignments as to be a powerful factor in the Wilson administration as will Virginia's nine Democrats.

CHARGE AGAINST GUARDIAN.

Room Emptied of Crowd When Complainant Takes Stand.

Rustburg, Va., March 12.— Little trouble was occasioned yesterday morning in securing a jury in the trial of Thomas H. Brown, a rural mail carrier, between Gladys and Naruna, charged with criminal assault on an 18-year-old girl named Reid, who was his ward. Out of the venire of 23 men, a panel of sixteen was easily secured, and long before noon the jury was complete.

The girl herself, whose age is variously put from fourteen to eighteen years, was the first witness for the prosecution. The court cleared the court room of a large and curious crowd while she was on the stand, and only court officials,jury and counsel were present.

The case ha sattracted a good deal of interest and large crowds were in attendance at court.

APPROPRIATIONS FOR NEW PAVING

Nearly $25,000 Authorized by Council at Meeting Last Night.

MAYOR SUSTAINED.

Veto of Resolution in Reference to City Printing Causes Long Discussion in Lower Board.

Seven Aldermen were present last night. The business was transacted without discussion and all the measures passed were by unanimous votes.

An ordinance providing for the improvement of Payne street between Cameron and Queen, and an ordinance to provide for the improvement of Cameron street from Pitt to St. Asaph, were presented by Mr. Ogden, of the streets committee.

After some interchange of opinion and the propounding of certain questions, the ordinances were passed by unanimous votes.

A resolution appropriating $400 for the purpose of constructing a cobblestone roadway with vitrified brick gutters on Princess street from St. Asaph to Washington, reported favorably by the same committee, was passed.

The same committee reported adversely on petitions of J. H. Chilcott for permission to erect a two-story building on the east side of Henry street, between Duke and Wolfe, and of J. Matthews for permission to reconstruct a shed in the alley bounded by Lee, Union, King and Prince streets, and the reports were adopted.

Mr. Ogden presented a resolution requesting the committee on general laws to prepare an ordinance requiring the extermination of ownerless dogs in the city and the muzzling of others when on the streets. The resolution was referred.

Mr. Ogden also presented a resolution requesting the fire committee to ascertain why the water pressure in the eastern section of the city from Lee street to the river is unsatisfactory. The resolution was referred.

The Aldermen, without discussion, concurred in the action of the Common Council on all papers sent in.

COMMON COUNCIL.

Only eleven members of Council were present at the meeting last night, Messrs. Lambert Graham, Monroe, Bryan and Marshall being absent.

The only matter that caused any discussion or seemed to arouse the interest of the members generally was the veto by the Mayor of a resolution passed at the last meeting which directed the finance committee to secure bids for the city printing, and to make a 12 month's contract with the lowest bidder.

The Mayor in his veto said there were four objections to the resolution. The resolution merely said "all city printing," which was not sufficientliy definite, and the city printing could be roughly divided into two classes, advertising, which includes the publication of council proceedings, ordinances, etc., in the newspapers and supplies for the various city officers, such as ledgers, record books and various blanks and forms, and that it was practically impossible to let a contract covering 12 months in advance on this second class. The resolution required no bond to be given and did not specify the size of type for newspaper advertising, and finally the most important objection was that he did not believe council had the right to delegate the power to make contracts to any committee, without first reporting to Council.

As soon as the veto message was read there were several motions made and the chair decided that the one by Mr. Birrell that the Mayor's veto be sustained was proper and in order. A discussion at once started and lasted an hour. Mr. Brockett got the floor and had the clerk read his resolution, the committee's report and the Mayor's veto. The clerk read the papers slowly and Mr. Brockett discussed them almost sentence by sentence, his remarks being punctuated by constant interruption by Mr. Spinks who objected to the length of the discussion, the subject of the discussion, and to all procedures concerning the matter.

In his discussion Mr. Brockett laid stress on the fact that the amount paid by the city for advertising had been increased during the last two years, and that he believed some action looking into this cause should be instituted. His attention was called to the fact that more street ordinances had been published during the last 18 months than ever before in the city's history; that the annexation ordinance, Royal street franchise and other matter had largely increased the city's advertising.

Mr. Birrell said that after carefully reading the Mayor's veto he believed Council was in error and that most of the Mayor's contentions were correct.

Mr. Williams moved to lay the Mayor's veto on the table. But Mr. Birrell and Mr. Burke objected to any communications of the Mayor's being treated in so ignominious away. Mr. Williams then said that as a courtesy to the members of the City Council and not to anybory else he would withdraw his motion to lay on the table.

On a vote the Mayor's veto was sustained, ayes 5;Messrs. Spinks, Burke, Smith, Birrell and Brumback. Noes 6; Messrs. Leadbeater, Williams, Brockett, Harrison, Swan and Chauncey. Eleven votes are required to overrule the Mayor's veto.

After this vote was taken there was some discussion as to the method of getting the matter before Council again. The chair decided that a new resolution would have to be introduced, and Mr. William then introduced a resolution directing the clerk of Council to get bids from the two daily newspapers of the city for the city advertisnig, and to report these bids to Council at the next meeting, council to award the contract to the lowest bidder. Mr. Williams asked that this be passed at once. Messrs. Spinks and Brockett objected to this being passed without being referred to a committee, and it was finally agreed that it should go to the finance committee.

Mr. Harrison from the committee on light stated that his committee was unable to report on the proposed new lights for Washington street, as they have not yet received sufficient information from the Alexandria County Lighting Company.

Mr. Birrell introduced a resolution directing the Corporation Attorney to prepare a revision of the city charter to conform to the present state constitution, which was referred to the committee on general laws.

Messrs. Swan introduced a resolution looking to the cessation o f the dog nuisance, providing that all dogs on the street must be either muzzled or in leash, and a similiar resolution was received from the Board of Aldermen where it had been introduced by Mr. Ogden. Both resolutions were sent to the committee on general laws. Mr. Birrell introduced a resolution calling on the city atorney to furnish Council with copies of all laws on this subject.

Council took up and passed the following appropriations that had been laid over at the last meeting. $1,200 for the cost of the appeal in the annexation proceedings, which was passed by a vote of ayes 9 noes 1 (Mr. Leadbeater) Mr. Brockett not voting.

All of the other appropriations were passed by unanimous vote.

$1,700 to cobble Princess street from Lee to St. Asaph; $2,800 to continue the N. W. sewer; $1,300 to cobble Pendleton street from Washington to Pitt; $3,850 to pave Cameron street from Pitt to Royal with vitrified brick; $9,500 to pave Royal street from Prince to Wilkes, one square with vitrified brick and two squares with tar macadam; $4,000 to pave Pitt street from Cameron to King with vitrified brick.

A number of other matters were considered which will be found in the official proceedings.

HURRIES FROM ROOM.

Smoldering Oil-Soaked Rags Found In Corner—Lillian Lenton Suspected of Incendiarism Disappears.

London, March 12.—Despite strenuous efforts of the authorities to suppress the incident, confirmation was obtained today that on Monday a supposed suffragette attempt was made to burn the British museum.

A woman was alone for a brief space in one of the rooms and a watchman saw her leave in haste, became suspicious and investigated. He foun da quantity of smoldering oil-soaked rags in a corner of the room, and told the museum officials that the stuff would have undoubtededly burnt into flames a few minutes after he discovered it.

Scotland yard detectives today were searching for Lillian Lenton, the suffragete awaiting trial for participation in the burning of the Kew Gardens Pavillion. She was released from prison because of sickness and several days ago mysteriously disappeared from the house of a friend.

Return to Work.

New York, March 12.—Following the refusal of the twenty thousand garment workers to accept the terms of the compromise secured on February 28th by the officials of the United Garment Workers of North America, another agreement has been reached and accepted by both sides, all of the men still on strike returning to work today. The new agreement provides for a fifty three hour week for tailors, fifty hour week for cutters and a substantial increase in pay.

This leaves the childrens and misses dressmakers union the only branch of the clothing industry in which a strike is in progress and efforts were renewed today to compromise it .

LAND OWNERS WIN.

District Court Overuled in Warren County Condemnation Case.

Richmond, Va., March 12.—The constitutionality of an act of Congress of August, 1888, and of a Virginia statute was involved in a decision headed down by Judge Smith of the Federal Circuit Court of Appeals Tuesday in the case of Paul Beattie, and others against the United States, involving the condemnation of lands to the value of $50,000 in Warren county, Va. which came up on an apepal from a decision of Judge McDowell in the District Court at Lynchburg. The decision of Circuit Court was reversed that of lower court and remanded it for trial by jury.

The property of Paul Beatty, Alma Jackson, Luey E. Barbee, and others was condemned under an act of congress of March 3, 1911, providing an appropriation for the purchase of land accessible to the cattle raising section of Virginia for the purpose of assembling, grazing and training of horses for the mounted service in the United States army.

Beatty et als., apepaled from the decision of the court assessing damages for the seizure of land on several points, the one being considered by the appellate court being that which held that the assessment of damages should have been made by a jury rather than by a commission of five named by the District Court.

VIRGINIANS ARE UNABLE TO AGREE

Clash Over Honors For Thomas Nelson Page and Joseph E. Willard.

A SPIRITED CONTEST.

Anti-Organization Forces Attack Dr. Page on the Ground That he is Not Progressive—Bryan Investigating.

Washington, March 12.—Virginia Democratic "organization" and the "anti-organization" factions have clashed over the diplomatic honors which the Old Dominion leaders have asked for that State. The fight revolves around Dr. Thomas Nelson Page, the noted Virginia author, who is backed by the "organization" leaders and Colonel Joseph E. Willard, former Lieutenant Governor and a millionaire, who is supported by the "anti-machine" element.

The struggle has been carried to the White House. It has also been laid before Secretary of State Bryan. It is said that Mr. Bryan is making an inquiry as to whether Dr. Page is "progressive."

The "anti-organization" men are the most aggressive. There were laid before the state department copies of one speech and two letters which Dr. Page had delivered and written.

A letter has also been written to President Wilson, reciting that Dr. Page has never been found on the side of progressive politics in state fights in Virginia, whereas Colonel Willard not only has led such contests but has contributed freely from his purse to them.

Echoes of the Baltimore convention have been brought into the factional fight. One of the letters which was turned over to Secretary Bryan, was written by Dr. Page shortly after Wilson's nomination. In this communication the author criticised the Nebraskan sharply for his attack upon Thomas Fortune Ryan in the convention. After stating that he believed Wilson was the strongest man the convention conld nominate, Dr. Page wrote:

"The best speech I heard in the convention was Mr. Hal D. Flood's spirited and masterly reply to Mr. William Jenning Bryan's unprecedented demand that a duly elected and seated delegate from Virginia (meaning Thomas F. Ryan) should withdraw from the convention. Other speeches were appropriate to the occasion, but this went to the basis at once of States' rights and of representative government. I was proud that day that 'the sovereign state of Virginia' had a representative on that floor so able to defend her 'sovereign rights.'"

Another letter used against Dr. Page was written during the Martin-Jones senatorial campaign, in which Mr. Bryan appeared as a supporter of Congressman Jones. In this letter Dr. Page praises Senator Martin as a man who has led the Virginia Democracy from the wilderness. The letter was also laid before Secretary Bryan by the Willard forces to show that Dr. Page is not a "progressive" in State politics, and is on the side of the "machine."

Virginia "anti-organization" men are coming to Washington on almost every train to help Col. Willard. Dr. Page's friends are not so active, but they are working quietly. Congressman Walter A. Watson, of the Fourth District, who as a judge presided in the famous Beattie murder trial;Senators Martin and Swanson and Congressman Flodo are warm supporters of the Virginia author.

The fight for Colonel Willard is led by Congressman Jones, who opposed Senator Martin for re-election to the Senate a year and a half ago; Richard Evelyn Byrd, manager of the Wilson fight in Virginia, Col. Robert E. Lee, Jr., grandson of the Confederate Chieftain; Congressman Andrew Jackson Montague, of Richmond, and other anti-organization men.

The Best Dining Tables

Merely applying the term of "best" to these Dining Tables would not suffice to convince if there was a lack of proof. It can be demonstrated to the satisfaction and approval of every one that they are the latest in design, most practical in make, and for convenience and safety have no equal.

The materials are selected kiln-dried. These tables are neither screwed nor nailed together, but bolted; therefore perfectly rigid. One, two or three leaves, may be locked in without disturbing or opening the base. They are the only tables made with the Tyden Removable Top.

Both top and pedestal have separate locks, working independently of each other.

This feature makes it easy for one to take the top and base apart; the slides are fitted with steel bearings, thus a free and easy response when opening or closing sides finished with a preparation that will prevent warping.

BULLDOG CAPTURES THIEF.

Canine Urged on by Owner Runs Down Woman's Assailant.

Norfolk, Va., March 12.—Tripped and grabbed by a bulldog as he was running down the street, Charles Scott a negro, was arrested Saturday night, charged with snatching a pocketbook from Mrs. Annie V. Leigh. Bute street. at Charlotte and Brewer streets. Mrs. Leigh's hand was badly cut by the leather handle of the pocketbook by the negro forcing it out of her hand.

Mrs. Leigh was returning home after a trip downtown. She stubbornly resisted when the negro grabbed the pocketbook.

Her screams attracted the attention of a passerby with a bulldog, who released the dog and sicked him on the fleeing negro. The dog ran down the negro, the chain becoming entrangled around his legs, throwing him to the ground. The owner of the dog grabbed the negro and Mrs. Leigh telephoned to police headquarters. Detective Debnam was sent to the scene and arrested the negro.

BIGAMY CHARGE.

Young Wife Prostrated as Accused is Locked Up.

Richmond, March 12.—In the presence of his sixteen-year-old bride, to whom he was married last December, Albert L. Clark, thirty-three years old, was arrested Monday on a charge of bigamy. Evidence of a former marriage, contracted in 1902, is said to be in the hands of the police. Wife No. 1 is now living, and according to the police, the former marriage has never been annulled or otherwise judicially set side.

An investigation disclosed that the first Mrs. Clark ws an inmate of the City Home, where she is suffering with an incurable disease. Before her marriage she was Miss Mabel Snead, of Richmond, and was married in this city eleven years ago by Dr. J. B. Hutson.

Wife No. 2 is Miss Mary Naves, sixteen years old. She was married to Clark on December 7 last.

The accused is an ironworker and has an excellent record as a workman. He is a Richmonder and has many relatives on the Northside, where he made his home until his last marriage.

Fatally Burned.

Uniontown, Pa., March 12.—Mrs. Emma Noutf, aged 29, and her six children, ranging in ages from two months to ten years were burned, probably fatally, by a gas explosion in their home in Filbert, near here today.

VIRGINIA BRIEFS.

Luray.—Destructive forest fires have been raging in this county for several days and have destroyed thousands of cords of bark and timber and entailed heavy loss on the grazing farms in the Blue Ridge. The Government reservations in the Massanutten Mountains of this county are being closely guarded to prevent the fires communicating.

Bristol.—Charged with having murdered Nelson Archer, a member of the Tennessee militia, whom he killed in a fist fight recently, William Poore, a local shooting-gallery proprietor, was sentenced Monday in the Bristol (Va.) court to five months in jail. Archer was strangled by the blood that flowed from his nose into his windpipe.

Manassas.—W. H. Moran, 51 years old, founder of the Manassas Journal and the Hamilton Enterprise, died at his home here Tuesday. He was the author of "From Schoolroom to Par." The funeral will take place Thursday and burial will be in Manassas Cemetery.

A GIRL SMOKES A CIGAR.

Virginia Lass Astonishes People of Rockville.

Ideas of feminine propriety were given a severe jolt in Rockville, Md., Monday afternoon by the spectacle of a young girl joining two companions in a cigar smoke on one of the principal street corners of the town.

The young woman who had the temerity to puff away at a good Havana in full view of the passing public was from Rondabush, Va., who visited Rockville to get married to a young man from her own town. They failed to get married there for the reason that they found none of the ministers at home. As they were waiting for a car to carry them back to Washington a young man who accompanied them treated to cigars and the girl promptly applied the match and puffed away with apparent satisfaction.

Some apprehension was felt by the onlookers as to the effect the cigar might have on the girl, but their misgivings were set at rest when she began to spit, for the skill with which she expectorated showed her to be experienced at the business. Rockville is still talking about it.

FAIL TO GET INJUNCTION.

Judge Waddill Refuses to Grant Order Against Express Company.

Richmond, Va., March 12.—Judge Edmund Waddil, Jr., of the United States District Court, dended yesterday the application of H. Clarke & Sons, wholesale liquor dealers of this city, for a temporary injunction against the Southern Express Company, to restrain it from refusing to accept and deliver liquor shipments destined for South Carolina. The application was filed on Saturday.

The refusal of Judge Waddill to grant the relief asked for has, as far as South Carolina is concerned, been remedied by Chief Justice Gary, of the Supreme Court of South Carolina, who, on Saturday, issued an order calling upon agents at Columbia and Abbeville to deliver liquor consignments in their possession. The order is temporary, but until it is set aside in the courts the Southern Express Company will make delivery.

Austria Demobilizing.

Vienna, March 12.—The promised demobilization by Austria-Hungary actually began today with the issue of an order by the war office sending home all the military reservists on the Russian frontier. It was announced that new class of reservists would be called to colors on March 26, but no significance was attached to that statement, Similar demobilization by Russia is expected within a few days.

Engineer Killed.

Richmond, Va., March 12.—Horribly crushed and mangled, the lifeless body of Clarence E. Knight, a locomotive engineer, 27 years old, of Raleigh, N. C., was found last night in the local freight yards of the Seaboard Air Line Railway, near the intersection of Hermitage Road and Dinnenn street. His skull was crushed and one foot severed.Death had been instantaneous.

It is thought that when he met his death he was attempting to board the shifter, missed his footing and slipped beneath the wheels.

Appeal Denied.

Paris, March 12.— The court of Apepals today refused to order the transfer to a French depository of $40,000 belonging to the late Mrs. Wyman, of Baltimore. The woman was the wife of Prince Chalais de Bearn in the diplomatic service, and her money is in a Baltimore bank.

The prince petitioned the court to order its transfer to a French Bank, in order that the money might be removed from the jurisdiction of the United States courts which refused to allow him to take possession of it.

KISS BETWEEN BARS.

Sweetheart Says Farewell—Victor Allen Gets Father's Will.

Richmond, Va., March 12.—Between the bars of the death cell of the State penitentiary yesterday morning the lips of Miss Nellie Wissler and Claude Swanson Allen touched in the last kiss before he goes into the electric chair, his execution being set for March 28.

Shortly before this affecting scene Victor Allen visited his father, Floyd Allen, and received from the aged mountaineer his verbal will as to the disposition of the few remaining personal effects in the Carroll county home. Then Victor started back to carry to his sick mother the last tidings from the condemned husband and son.

Friends of the Allens contemplate carrying the case of the two men to the United States Supreme Court. A writ of certiorari issued by the highest tribunal in the land would stay the execution, which would give the two men an opportunity to testify against Dexter Goad, clerk of the Carroll county court, who is charged with perjury in testimony given against members of the Allen clan.

GUN WAS LOADED.

Roanoke Boy Accidentally Kills His Companion.

Roanoke, Va., March 12.—Saturday night Walter Edwards, aged seventeen years, was shot and accidentally killed by Abe Ferguson, at the home of E. R Powell, near Pinhook, in Franklin county. The gun was supposed to be unloaded, and young Ferguson, through a spirit of fun, pointed it right into the face of the Edwards boy and pulled the trigger.

He was horrified to see the flash of the gun, hear the deafening report, and see his friend fall dead at his feet. The young man was the son of W. H. Edwards, a well-known farmer. He is survived by his parents, one brother, Charles Edwards, and seven sisters.

COUNCILMEN AFTER DOGS.

The recent deaths of two Alexandrians from dog bites has occasioned anxiety in Alexandria, and representatives of the people last night in the City Council introduced resolutions requesting the committee on general laws to prepare an ordinance providing for the extinction of all ownerless canines in the city and the muzzling of others when allowed to appear on the streets, or proper leashing.

The mad dog scare appears periodically as does the seventeen-year locust, when the city gets busy and sends out the dog cart. A few ownerless curs are caught and dispatched, which generally brings forth protests from many well-meaning people. The procedure is short-lived, and a few weeks later there are apparently as many of the brutes running at large as ever.

The recent deaths of Raymond Struder and Lee Shepherd from hydrophobia has caused another movement upon the part of the authorities.

The objects of the members of Council who last night introduced resolutions for safeguarding the community are practical. All ownerless and worthless dogs should be coralled and after a given time, should their redeemers fail to appear, they should be disposed of regardless of the horror experienced by oversensitive people. Those upon which taxes are paid, when allowed on the streets, should be muzzled or under control by leashing. The danger from rabies would thereby be considerably diminished.

MAYOR'S VETO JUSTIFIED.

The veto of Mayor Fisher of a resolution passed by Council in reference to the City printing and considered by the lower board last night was thoroughly justified, and the attempt on the part of Councilman Brockett, to override the vote clearly showed the spirite which animated him in this matter.

It will be apparent from a careful reading of the mayor's veto, which will be found in the official proceedings, that his position is well taken. The resolution which was passed by Council was hastily drawn, indefinite and could not have been carried out. It furthermore conferred greater power upon a committee than council has itself and was therefore illegal.

These points were clearly brought out in the discussion last night, but Mr. Brockett, still smarting from his overwhelming defeat at the polls last April, was, of course, unable to see anything good in Mayor Fisher's clear and logical statement.

Mayor Fisher made no objection to the proposition of awarding the public printing to the lowest bidder but did object to the manner in which it was to be done.

A SITUATION TO BE REGRETTED.

The conflict in Washington between the friends of Dr. Thomas Nelson Page and Col. Joseph E. Willard over their appointment to a diplomatic post will be sincerely regretted by many residents of this state who have always had the highest consideration for these two distinguished Virginians. They are both so eminently qualified to represent the United States abroad that there should be no question of both being named for the highest honors, to be bestowed by the Wilson administration.

Virginia has no more distinguished son that the author of the charming Southern stories that have been read the world over. Their author, Dr. Page, is a man of culture and will reflect honor and credit upon his home country no matter to what post he may be assigned. He has never taken an active part in Virginia politics or has been alligned with any faction. The reasons given by those who are opposing him are puerile. They are principally based on a letter which Dr Page wrote shortly after the Baltimore Convention, sustaining the right of the State of Virginia to name its own candidates to a national convention and objecting to the unprecedented demand of William Jennings Bryan that a duly elected and seated delegate from Virginia should withdraw from the convention.

Col. Willard is likewise one of the state's best known and most prominent men. He has filled every position which has been given him with credit and honor and he would represent our country abroad in the most admirable manner.

He has always worked for the Democratic party and when funds were needed to carry on the work Col. Willard has always been one of the heaviest contributors.

Charge Against Mayor Gaynor.

New York, March 12. — Whether Magistrate Kernochan will issue a warrant for the arrest of Mayor William J. Gayonr, for criminal libel on the application of Ralph Pulitzer will be decided by Saturday. The magistrate has reserved decision in affidavits submitted by the newspaper publisher which set forth that in a speech before the South Brooklyn Board of Trade Gaynor libelled the late Joseph Pulitzer. It is alleged in the affidavits presented that in this speech Gaynor said:

"Joseph Pulitzer amassed a fortune of $50,000,000 by blackmail and indecency."

Attorneys Howard Taylor and Jas. Osborne, representing Ralph Pulitzer argued that the statement complained of was libelous under one decision of the Court of Appeals and three of the Appellate division. Taylor held that the law of libel was the same in civil and criminal actions excepting that in the later the offense had to be established beyond a reasonable doubt." The magistrate said that he was not sure that libel could lie in the statement complained of although slander might.

The court then gave the attorneys until Friday afternon at 4 o'clock and intimated that he would decide the matter soon afterward. In a statement explaining his position Ralph Pulitzer said that he did not care how much he personally and his publications might be libeled by the mayor but that he would defend the reputation of his dead father. To do so, he said, he was prepared to carry this case to the highest court with jurisdiction in the case.

Conditions in Mexico.

Douglas, Ariz., March 12.—Owing to destroyed telegraph wires no further advices were received today from Parral, where 1,500 Maderista troops were defeated by Mexican federals after a fifty hour battle, according to information received late last night.

Details of the engagement are meagre, but it is known the federals shelled the town for two days inflicting heavy damage to property. The Maderistas had taken possession of Parral and on the evening of March 5 the federal forces began their attack which lasted until the evening of March 7.

A telegram from Nogales, Ariz. today declared that one thousand Maderistas, with several machine guns, are marching against Nogales, Mexico, just across the border. They are commanded by Gen. Obregon, Nogales is garrisoned by five hundred federals under Col. Emilio Kosterlitsky.

In the event of a battle there United States troops will be rushed from Arizona and New Mexico posts to patrol the border and if possible, prevent bloodshed on the American side.

Paris.—The Infante Luis, cousin fo the king of Spain, billed to appear in a charity theatrical performance, was called to Madrid because the king objected to his stage appearance.

SMILES.

By The Second Ward Bard.

A KID SWEETHEART.

I saw her first when I was eight and she was only seven,
And I was sure that day I'd give my chance for Heaven
To have that winsome little lass a smile on me bestow,
For that, I knew, would cheer my lot and set my heart aglow.

When, later, in the village school, I helped her with her sums,
I had to stand a lot of teasing from my school-boy chums,
But, then I didn't mind a bit, for when I caught a sight
Of her sad look of sympathy, I dared that bunch to fight.

And when I carried home her books and stood there at the gate,
And watched her pretty, rosy face, it seemed just like my fate,
Was linked forever with her own; and then I stole a kiss,
And ran home fast as I could go, just filled with heavenly bliss.

Now she's a happy wife and mother, whom I've talked about,
And I'm a grouchy, bald-head bachelor, suffering with the gout,
And tho' I've since loved scores of girls in all parts of the state,
It's sweet to think 'bout kissing little Mary at the gate.

Look out now for another lecture from Bill May, entitled "All the way to Washington, on Inauguration Day, on one ferry-boat."

Heidenheimer ought to get the sign of his craft out in front of his place, or somebody is going to mistake it for an undertaker's establishment.

Three lawyers sat on a jury in the Corporation Court on Monday. Now they know how juries suffer during the argument of counsel.

That certainly was some "rob" story told by Councilman Swan last night in describing the death of a little boy.

Spick and span, dressed to kill,
You see him every day,
He's never grouchy, never has
A word that's mean to say.

He knows this burg from A to Z,
From Rosemont to the docks,
Few towns can boast a sergean
Who compares with our Dick Cox.

WILSON AND LATIN AMERICA.

Thrust at Castro, Zelaya And Other Turbulent Spirits.

President Wilson last night gave the first indication of what are to be the foreign policies of his administration in a statement dealing with the relations of the United States with the countries of Latin America. The statement serves notice upon the turbulent elements of Latin America that the United States will insist upon law, order, and constitutional government in the southern republics.

The Wilson statement is a direct thrust at Castro, Zelaya, and others understood to be plotting the destruction of existing governments in certain Latin-America countries. It is a severe blow to the plans of those professional revolutionists who had convinced themselves that under a Democratic administration at Washington license would be permitted in Central America. It is believed that the President issued his statement chiefly for the purpose of disabusing the agitators of Latin America of any such action.

In many quarters the President's declarsition is construed as notice to the Huerta government in Mexico City that it will not receive the recognition of the United States until it has itself received the indorsement of the majority of the people in Mexico by means of a regular election.

President Wilson, among other things, said:

"I earnestly desire the most cordial understanding and cooperation between the peoples and leaders of America.

"We can have no sympathy with those who seek to seize the power of government to advance their own personal interests or ambition.

"The United States has nothing to seek in Central and South America except the lasting interests of the peoples of the two continents, the security of governments intended for the people and for no special group or interest."

Alienists yesterday examined the first "crank" of the Wilson administration. The man gave his name as Dr. Charles A. Schwab, of Dallas, Texas. He is being detained in the Washington asylum, in which institution he was placed Tuesday when arrested by Secret Service men on his arrival in Washington. The man said he was on his way to the White house to be sworn in as President and he had in his possession a number of written messages purporting to have been sent to him by Chief Justice White, of the Supreme Court. It is believed that he wrote them himself.

A New Kind of Roofing

Asphalt Gravel That Will Last Ten Years—Can be Used Anywhere.

Cumberland, Md. — Among the many improvements at the new Y. M. C. building is the asphalt gravel roof (Security brand) that was put on under direction of Mr. Adam May.

A fairy tale is told about this roofing by Mr. A. M. Strickland, of Elkton, Md. About fifteen years ago he built the Elkton Foundry and covered the roof with Security Asphalt Gravel roofing and four years afterward the building and contents were consumed by fire. Nothing was left but the walls and roofing.

Being of an economical turn of mind he ordered the carpenters to cut down the roofing in strips, losing only the laps.

He used these strips of roofing on the new foundry building and it is in good condition today after ten years of active service.

It would be difficult to believe such a tale, because tin, iron and slate or any other composition roofing would have gone to smash or curled up and blown away in such a conflagration.

There is reason to believe that this true, because it stood the test in a similar fire in the B. & O. hay shed at Mt. Clare Station, Baltimore, some years ago.

This roofing can be purchased of

Salves Can't Cure Eczema

In regard to skin diseases, medical authorities are now agreed on this:

Don't imprison the disease germs in your skin by the use of greasy salves, and thus encourage them to multiply. A true cure of all eczematous diseases can be brought about only by using the healing agents in the form of a liquid.

WASH THE GERMS OUT.

A simple wash. A compound of Oil of Wintergreen, Thymol, and other ingredients as combined in the D.D.D. Prescription. This penetrates to the disease germs and destroys them, then soothes and heals the skin as nothing else has ever done.

A 50 cent bottle will start the cure and give you instant relief.

We have made fast friends of more than one family by recommending this D.D.D. Prescription to a skin sufferer here and there, and we want you to try it now on our positive pay guarantee. D.D.D. Soap keeps the pores clean; ask us.

"My Guests Are Coming Tomorrow!"

When expecting guests, the housewife often finds it necessary to call upon the local dealers for quick service. A window-shade breaks, or a new rug is needed—perhaps the piano needs tuning—or something special in the way of food supplies may be wanted. It's handy to step to the telephone and order what is needed. Telephone orders always receive prompt attention.

Have you a Bell Telephone in your home? It costs so little and is so convenient.

COMMON COUNCIL.

At a regular meeting of the Common Council of the City of Alexandria, Va., held March 11th, 1913, there were present:

R. D. Brumback, Esq., President and Messrs. Leadbeater, Burke, Spinks Smith, Williams, Birrell, Brockett Harrison, Swan and Chauncey.

A report of the Finance Committee authorizing bids for city printing and awarding contracts to the lowest bidder, which was adopted at the last meeting, was returned by the Mayor without his approval, and the Mayor's objection was sustained. Ayes Messrs. Spinks, Burke, Smith, Birrell and Mr. President, (5). Noes Messrs. Leadbeater, Williams, Brockett, Harrison, Swan and Chauncey (6).

The Mayor's communication is as follows:

To The Honorable City Council,
Alexandria, Va.

Gentlemen:

The enclosed resolution for public printing I am returning to you without my signature, for,

First: The resolution as passed by Council on February 25th, 1913, "Your committee recommends that the Finance Committee be authorized to ask for bids for City Printing, and to award contract to the lowest bidder for a period of twelve months, beginning April 1st, 1913," is indefinite It should set forth exactly what it meant by "City printing. City printing consists of two classes of work the reports, blanks, stationery and books needed for the transaction of the business of the various departments of the city government, such as the Gas Office, the Engineer's Office, the Auditor's Office, the Mayor's Office, the Clerk of the Court's Office and etc.; and second, the city's advertising, such as the proceedings of the City Council, ordinances advertising for bids for street work, etc. It would be almost impossible for the Finance Committee to award a contract for the first class of this work because of its varied character. No definite contract for a period of twelve months could be made for the various items under this head used in different departments, because the quantity, class of printing, material used, &etc. all differ in each particular piece of work, and change from year to year. There may also be new work needed during the year, which the officials could know nothing of at the present time.

Second: If the second character of the city printing is meant, that which is inserted in the newspapers, the resolution should set forth the size of the type in which the advertisement should be set. Contracts are made on the basis of a running inch, by the width of a column of a newspaper, and if the Council proceedings are set in a larger type by one bidder than by the other, the cost to the city would be increased, while the price per inch might be reduced.

Third: No bond is required for the faithful performance of the work, and an irresponsible contractor might be able to make a low bid and secure the contract, and after finding it unprofitable, fail to carry it to a conclusion, thus entailing additional expense to the city.

Fourth: The Council has no right to delegate to the Finance Committee the right to award a contract of this kind without same being referred back to City Council. The bids might total many thousand dollars, and under the terms of the resolution, the finance committe would be enabled to contract for any sum of money that might be agreed upon between it and the bidder, without Council having the right to give its approval. It has not been customary for any committee of Council to make a contract for work until the nature and character of the work has been definitely specified by Council and the money appropriated.

Very respectfully,
THOMAS A. FISHER,
Mayor.

A resolution appropriating $200.00 to pay expenses of the appeal in the annexation proceedings was called from the table and passed. Ayes, Messrs. Spinks, Burke, Smith, Williams, Birrell, Harrison, Swan, Chauncey, and Mr. President. (9). Noes, Mr. Leadbeater. (1).

The bargan offer here is unusual—distinctive.

Furniture made to sell at $20 has been "mercilessly cut to $9.98" so many times that such events are ordinary.

But this month we have placed before you a few of our better pieces marked down because they have been in stock all season.

Profit on such furniture is never high, and seldom are pieces like these sold without profit. Our policy requires cleaning the floor of goods we have held through one season. You could not distinguish them from new arrivals, except by the lowered price.

To women who manage their homes with real economy, this is an oppontunity of real importance.

Tuberculosis Medicine Saved This Man's Life

Pneumonia is a serious disease, and often lays the foundation for chronic lung troubles—sometimes Tuberculosis results. After Pneumonia, or any serious or stubborn cold, it is wise to take Eckman's Alterative. Don't wait to find out whether the trouble is getting worse, but take Eckman's Alterative in time and avoid the dangers of disease. Read of the recovery in this case:

336 No. 41st St., Phila., Pa.

"Gentlemen: I am getting along very nicely and gaining strength all the time. I now weigh 154 pounds, a gain since September 16, 1907, of 28 pounds more than when I first started to take the Alterative. I wish I had known of it two years ago, as it would have saved me much misery and distress. I was suffering from a very serious abscessed lung, which followed a bad attack of pneumonia. My physician and a specialist declared my case hopeless. I cannot but be thankful to you and the Almighty God for the great blessing and change of health it has brought me."

(Sworn Affidavit) THOS. REILLY.

(Five years later, reports good health.)

Eckman's Alterative is effective in Bronchitis, Asthma, Hay Fever, Throat and Lung Troubles, and in upbuilding the system. Does not contain poisons, opiates or habit-forming drugs. Ask for booklet telling of recoveries, and write to Eckman Laboratory, Philadelphia, Pa., for more evidence. For sale by all leading druggists

NEWS OF THE DAY.

Benjamin Weiss, glass blower, formerly of Philadelphia, who shot and killed Ethel Finley, of Tarentum, Pa., at the home of her aunt in Indianapolis, Ind., on March 5, died of his self-inflicted wounds at the hospital today. Weiss had a wife and child living in Philadelphia, but was supposed to have been infatuated with the Finley girl.

Fines aggregating $20,000 were imposed in Washington by Justice Stafford yesterday upon Jos. Gatins, of New York; Virgil P. Randolph, of Virginia; William Price, of Baltimore; Edward Everett Taylor, of this city; Edward Weldom, and James A. Anderson, who pleaded guilty to an indictment charging conspiracy to commit an offense against the United States. The men were arrested in April, 1910, in connection with the raids made by the Department of Justice of alleged bucket-shop firms.

Mayor William J. Stern of Erie, Pa., yesterday ordered mounted police to patrol that section of the city where yesterday morning striking stovemakers and strikebreakers battled. During the fighting May Schlosser, aged 17, was shot in the right leg; John Engle, foreman of an iron works, was knocked unconscious by a brick, and another man shot in the arm. A squad of police stopped the rioting and arrested three strikers. Following the arrests 500 strikers held an indignation meeting. They claim the shooting was done by strikebreakers. The striking stovemakers are demanding a complete union system in Erie. It is said that nearly 1,000 men are out, the strike affecting about a dozen manufactures.

Rear Admiral Joseph G. Eaton, U. S. N., retired, who died at his home in Norwell, Mass., on Saturday, was murdered. This is the belief of District Attorney Barker, of Brockton, and the police who began a secret investigation yesterday while funeral services were being held over the body of Rear Admiral Eaton in his Norwell home. Members of the rear admiral's family were closely questioned, but no intimation of the line of inquiry would be divulged by district attorney or State police last night

The Pennsylvania State Senate has passed the House bill designed to prohibit the carrying or displaying of red flags in public processions. The bill now goes to the governor for his action.

William Caine, said to be the last surviving member of the original John Brown's raiders, died at Winona, Minn., yesterday, aged 76.

John Strober, a farmer, living near Ellicott City, Md., committed suicide yesterday morning about 7:30 o'clock by hanging himself at his home. Mr. Strober was about 55 years old. He had brooded over the sudden death of his wife, Mrs. Emma Strober, who dropped dead two years ago.

Loss of life in villages south and southeast of Guatemala City Guatemala, due to an earthquake last Saturday, greatly exceed first reports. The towns of Cuajinicuilapo, having 3,000 inhabitants, 35 miles south of here, is entirely destroyed, but it is impossible to estimate the number of dead. The latest report receied from there is that 100 children were killed by the collapse of a school building and their bodies are entombed under it. Many persons are reported to have perished in villages within a radius of 25 miles of Cuajinicuilapo.

A 60-mile gale swept Sydney, South Wales, yesterday, causing several fatalities and doing great damage ashore and afloat. Sixty street cars were derailed by the wind, several yachts were wrecked and chimneys were toppled over throughout the city. A deluge accompanied the gale. One man was electrocuted and 10 horses were killed by a fallen wire and three men were drowned in the harbor.

Hebron, a small village five miles from Salisbury, Md., was thrown into great excitement yesterday afternoon by the spectacular suicide of John Darby, Miss Elizabeth Humphries, 18 years old, and badly crippled, but who is a very pretty, had Mr. Darby arrested charging him with assault and being the father of an infant born to her a few weeks ago. As soon as he found that the jury would in all probability bring an indictment against him he became very nervous. About 4 o'clock in the afternoon he took his shotgun from the house and started down the street. Just as he was opposite the public school and as the children were coming from the building he pointed the gun to his heart and fired one barrel, the load entering his body and killing him instantly. The children were thrown into a panic, some of the girls fainting at the horrible sight. Darby was 54 years of age, and leaves three children.

Car Crashes Into Building.

Cincinnati, O., March 12.—Garrett Coons, 75, a watchman and an unidentified man, were killed and seven passengers injured early today when a street car left the tracks and crashed into a building. Heavy stones knocked from the building crushed the roof of the street car.

Bomb Explosion.

Rochester, N. Y., March 12.—A terrific bomb explosion early today wrecked the front of the grocery store owned by Charles Capellino, at 37 North street, broke windows in several neighboring blocks and threw residents of the section into a panic. Cappolino declared he had not received any threatening letters and there is no clue.

London.—Six months ago a Birmingham physician inadvertently threw $500 worth of radium into a stove. The cinders and ashes were preserved and the element is being slowly recovered.

THE TEST THAT TELLS.

Is The Test of Time. Many Alexandria People Have Made This Tet.

Years ago this Alexandria citizen told in a public statement the benefit derived from Doan's Kidney Pills.

The statement is now confirmed—the testimony complete. Instances like this are numerous. They doubly prove the merit of Doan's Kidney Pills. Can any Alexandria reader demand more convincing proof? It's Alexandria testimony—it may be investigated.

Mrs. Anine Scott, 110 Prince street, strong friend to Doan's Kidney Pills Alexandria, Va., says: "I am the same today, as I was in 1910 when I publicly told of the cure they had made for me. This cure has been lasting, but I occasionally use Doan's Kidney Pills as a preventive. I had pains in my back and I could not rest well. In the morning I always felt tired and worn out, and I also had dizzy spells. Doan's Kidney Pills did such good world that it is a pleasure to recommend them to other kidney sufferers."
